

Fayette County Assessor, Eddie Young, will be visiting the following locations to take applications for homestead exemption, collect dog taxes, fill out assessment sheets, or to just answer questions. Please feel free to come by to discuss any problems or questions that you may have. With the price of gasoline at almost $4.00 per gallon, use this opportunity to save some gas!

July 1, 2014 – 9:00am to 12:00 pm -- Oak Hill Town Hall

July 2, 2014 – 9:00am to 11:30am -- Pax Town Hall

July 2, 2014 – 12:30pm to 3:30 pm – Mt Hope Town Hall

July 3, 2014 -- 8:30 am to 11:30 am -- Ansted Town Hall

July 3, 2014 -- 12:30 pm to 3:30 pm -- Gauley Bridge Town Hall

July 7, 2014 – 8:45am to 11:30 am – Meadow Bridge Town Hall

July 7, 2014 – 1:00 pm to 3:30 pm -- Smithers Town Hall

July 8, 2014 – 9:00 am to 11:30 am – Montgomery Town Hall

Please note that if you are signing up for homestead exemption, you must be 65 years of age or totally and permanently disabled. You must bring valid proof of age or an award letter stating that you are disabled.

Working hard to better serve the citizens of Fayette County!!